

East Anglian Whippet Club 16/11/19 (coped from handwritten notes)

My thanks to the EAWC for the kind invitation to judge. Also my thanks to the excellent stewards who kept things running so smoothly

MPB

1. Sykes's Veredon Another Rose. Brindle pup I have judged before. Correct in head neck and shoulder, good front and bone, deep rib, strong loin, well made quarters while balanced throughout. She was a little unsettled moving but went ok. Has a bright future.
2. Rees & Jones's Kierpark You Are My Sunshine. ANother cracking pup with good bone and balance. Femine head, good in neck and shoulder, nice tuck up, good quarters, moved well.
3. Lancashire & O'Donnell's If The Crown Fits Drishaun

PB

1. Whitehead, Smith & Mixdies Citycroft Storm In A Teacup. Brindle fawn, femine head, sound front with good fill for age. Correct length, well made quarters which she used to advantage. Moved well. BPB
2. Beetie's Beetelian Jewel In The Crown. Fawn with good bone and front. While a nice type, tends to fall away affecting her topline

JB

1. Allisstone's Hergehill With Bells On. An elegant brindle parti. Lovely head, neck and shoulder, well filled front, deep rib, nice length, strong loin, correct tuck up, well made quarters, moved well.
2. Aincough's Kidaruka Mother Of Mine. Similar type of fawn to 1. While difficult to seperate I just perferred head of 1. Moved soundly.
3. Saxby's Runaround Amazing Grace With Sandspring

YB

1. Howgate & Hull's Palmik Queen Of Diamonds JW. Smart femine brindle parti. Lovely size and balance, good neck and shoulders with a well filled front. Good bone, deep rib, strong loin, good quarters and angulation. Moved soundly and with purpose.
2. Beetie's Beetlian Krispy Kreme. A dark brindle with correct head neck and shoulders. Sound front, well developed rib, strong loin, moved out well with good quarters. Just preferred size of 1.
3. Moore's Zoraden Secret Sins At Sunwalkers

NB

1. Whitaker-Crosby's Crosscop May Be One More At Mulcair. Loved this fawn parti. Has a femine head, good in neck and shoulder, deep rib, well filled front, good length, strong loin, nice tuck, well developed quarters used well. With maturity one to watch.
2. Webster's Zoraden Fifty Shades Darker. A vlack shown in first class order. Correct all through. Moved well, I just preferred head of 1.
3. Howgate & Hull's Brynreia Whispered Love At Palmik

GB

1. Webster's Zoraden Fifty Shades Darker
2. Head's Demerlay Magical Mitzi. Nice type as usual for this kennel. Good head, lovely front, correct bone and length. Nice tuck up, well made quarters, moved ok.
3. Perkins Southgrove Joy to the World At Zeglynn.

PGB

1. Moncrieff's Runaround Symphony. A balanced fawn with a sweet head, good neck and shoulder, correct bone, ok behind, moved soundly
2. Sykes's Veredon Baby Love. Nice sized bitch being sound all through. Moved well for me today, needed more body so another day could have been a different results.
3. Lancashire & O'Donnell's Danluke Dar Chocolate Drishaun

MLB

1. Smith's Welstar Airs And Graces At Cryhavoc. A balanced, correct sized fawn. Loved her head, good neck with well laid back shoulders. Well filled rib, strong loin, sound quarters, moved well.
2. Julian's Blondessa Be Happy JW. Another quality fawn. Sound all through, great for size, very feminine and moved well.
3. Head's Demerlay Strawberry Ice JW

LB - Best Class of the day

1. Wood's Ardencote Aiming High. Judged her before as a puppy. Loved her then awarding her BP. She has turned into a super whippet having type and balance. Feminine head, good neck and shoulders, well filled front with well made ribs. Strong loin, nice tuck up, sound well made quarters, moved very well, no exaggerations. Well done on BCC / BIS.
2. Brown's Ardencote Sweet Destiny For Bluestreak. Very similar type to 1 with little separating these two. I just preferred length of 1.
3. Glaholm's Gazenorth Secret Identity

OB

1. Sykes's Veredon Geeuz A Gander. A quality pale fawn, good head neck and shoulder, deep well filled front, good bone, deep rib with firm loin, nice quarters, good angulation, went well both ways. Pushed hard for top honours, RCC. Her day will come.
2. Brown's Ardencote Star Maker. Yet another quality fawn, sound all through, nicely made and moved well.
3. Lain & Alexander's Lolani Tennessee Honey

ChB

1. Place & Haliday's Ch. Collooney Queen Of Dragons With Brochinbelle JW. Really lovely fawn and white, very nice type indeed being sound all through with excellent movement.
2. Home & Fisher's Ch. Citycroft Creme Caramel Of Jasarat JW. Another quality bitch, as were all six. This girl was sound and balanced, moved very well, very little subtleties separated these bitches

3. Morris, Waddell & Mycroft's Crosscop Let It Shine For Supeta JW. What an excellent example of a champion bitch.

SVB 7-9

1. Mycroft's Ch. Supeta's Eclipse JW ShCM. An old favorite of mine having judged this pale fawn and white before. Being balanced and sound throughout her quality and movement won her this place.
2. Winkley-Balmer's Ch. April Showers At Crosscop. A very nice fawn being well made throughout. Just not as tight as 1 moving.
3. Mason's Aphrael Casting Pearl

SVB 10+

1. Wignall's Starswift Sunset. Pale fawn and white. What a grand old lady with balance and type. She still moves soundly being a credit to her owner.
2. (no name given) A nice fawn lady moving soundly

SR/LCB

1. Jones's Kenaiteen Blizzard At Silvergarth. A nice typey whippet shown in hard condition. Well balanced and moved ok.
2. Webber;s Zoraden Darkest Wings JW. Good type, balanced and moved with drive

SBB

1. Saxby's Runaround Amazing Grace With Sandspring. Nice type fawn with white trim, nice size and moved ok.
2. Bunney's Bunehug Blessed N Bewitched. The same remarks apply as 1st again. A good sound type whippet
3. Handley's Alyaldo's Rainbow Skies.

GCB

1. Whitaker-Crosby's Crosscop May Be One More At Mulcair.
2. Smith's Welstar Airs And Graces At Cryhavoc
